

Zoomst

NEW ORLEANS, LA

ZOOMST brings a genre-bending experience steeped in dance and mystery. Their compelling rock-fusion incorporates swamp funk, trip-hop, and symphonic soundscapes, enrobed in futuristic sound design.

From inception they have captivated audiences with their improvisation-driven and unpredictable live performances, ensuring no two shows are alike.

Their debut album, Aboard the Good Ship, set for release in Spring 2024, is an ambitious rock-opera that takes listeners on a conceptual sci-fi journey. Aboard the Good Ship explores themes of capitalism, greed, and conspiracy, while also offering a hopeful vision of human unity and progress.

It was produced by Joe Kalb (George Porter Jr.) with guest appearances by Mike Dillon (Les Claypool), Miles Lyons (The California Honeydrops), and more.
